B. RAMAKRISHNA RAO, for Dy. Comr., Shimoga Dt.

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Letter No. 355 of 1902, dated Hyderabad, the 25th April 1902, from the Assistant General Superintendent of Operations for the suppression of Thagi and Dacoity, Hyderabad (Deccan), to the Inspector General of Police, Mysore State, Bangalore.

With reference to my telegram of today's date, I have the honor to inform you that Inspector Habibul Rahman Khan of the Thagi and Dacoity Department, absconded on the 23rd April 1902, while under trial for offences under Sections 195, 196, 450 and 451 of the Indian Penal Code and has not been heard of since. Today I heard he was making for Mysore State, but I cannot ascertain to what part of it, but probably Mysore itself. I shall be greatly obliged if you will kindly publish his descriptive roll in your Police Gazette and also that Rs. 500 reward is offered for his arrest.

He absconded once before and was arrested at his house in Bulandsahar, so will probably not go there now, which makes it more likely that my information that he is going to Mysore is correct, if he is arrested he should be placed in leg-irons at once, and intimation sent to me, or the Resident at Hyderabad.

Descriptive Roll.

Habibul Rahman Khan, son of Gulam Nabbi Khan, Pathan, aged 50, height 5'—9" powerfully built, complexion more than usually fair, slightly pox marked, deep lines either sides of upper lip, and a single deep line perpendicularly between the eye-brows. Hair and beard grey.

Generally wears hair and beard clipped close, and dyed red. Holds himself very erect, has a habit of throwing his head back slightly when talking; has a decided, quiet manner. He swings one leg round rather when walking fast, but this is not very noticeable. He keeps his nails very short giving his hands the appearance of a man who bites his nails. When last seen, he wore a red fez cap, long cream coloured tweed cloth coat with a light grey line running down the whole length at intervals of half an inch or so. Mahomedan cotton trousers, and canvas sandals. His hair was longish and wavy, and both the ends of hair and beard were dyed red.

B. K. VENKATAVARADAIENGAR, Offg. Insp. Gen. of Police.
